Other Resources

Administration for Native Americans (ANA) provides discretionary grant funding for community-based projects, as well as training and technical assistance to eligible tribes and native organizations. ANA sends a weekly digest filled with resources to help Tribes and Tribal Associations. Grant opportunities, informational webinars, a resource library, and key events are a few of the topics covered each week. www.acf.hhs.gov/programs/ana

Community Action Partnership (CAP) provides training and support for local Community Action Agencies (CAAs) across the country. CAP's National CSBG Training Center has many helpful resources for CSBG-funded programs, including online program management tools and webinars. www.communityactionpartnership.com

Community Action Program Legal Services (CAPLAW) is a nonprofit membership organization dedicated to providing the legal, governance and management resources necessary to sustain and strengthen the national Community Action Agency (CAA) network. Through its in-house staff and a network of private attorneys, CAPLAW provides consultations, training, and resources on a wide variety of legal, governance and management topics. www.caplaw.org

National Association for State Community Services Programs (NASCSPP) is a nonprofit membership organization representing state CSBG administrators. NASCSPP provides research, analysis, training and technical assistance to state CSBG offices, community action agencies and state associations. www.nascsp.org
